Detailed Action

Drawings

The drawings were received on October 7, 2008. These drawings are accepted by the Examiner.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-12, 32, 35, and 38-50 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present invention generally discloses facilitating electronic commerce transactions at an automatic teller machine. The prior arts of record include the teaching of Antonin (US 2002/0138446) and Shooks (US 2002/0019781). Antoni teaches methods of preparing a financial services terminal for providing financial transactions using internet applications and protocols and providing a plurality of secure financial transactions through a plurality of remote financial service terminals. In addition, shooks teaches facilitating the purchase of goods and services anonymously from an e-commerce website. However, the prior arts of record fail to teach, singly or in combination, reformatting, at the one or more remote servers, said transaction data into a first format that enables the transaction data to be utilized by a server located on a global communications network, reformatting including translating the ATM data into a self contained package allowing for processing by the one or more electronic merchant servers in a native format used by the one or more electronic merchant servers;. reformatting, at the one or more remote servers, said merchant data into a second format that enables the merchant data to be utilized by the ATM, reformatting including translating the merchant data into a format utilized by the ATM to controls the display of the ATM.

The examiner agrees with the applicants' arguments presented in the remarks of October 7, 2008 and has withdrawn the rejection under 35 USC 103 over Antonin (US 2002/0138446) in view of Shooks (US 2002/0019781). The prior arts of records taken singly or in combination fail to teach or fairly suggest the claimed invention. Therefore, the examiner favors the allowance of claims 1-12, 32, 35, and 38-50.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
